MR. MARK LEWIS, of 11, Stalbridge Avenue, Liverpool, whose portrait appears at the head of this sketch, is a member of the Board of Management of the Royal Liver Friendly Society (whose head offices are in Liverpool, and which is the wealthiest society of its kind in Great Britain), Mr. Lewis having been elected the Chairman of the Board, and served two periods of office in that capacity

Mr. Lewis was born at Rogerstone, Monmouthshire, on April 2nd, 1846, and was educated at the British Schools, Newport, Monmouthshire. From the fact of his having left school at the early age of 11 years and 6 months, it is evident that Mr. Lewis's studies have been indefatigable, and his perseverance unremitting to enable him to achieve his present position. Mr. Lewis is the third son of the late

Mr. Mathew Lewis, and grandson of Mr. Morgan Lewis of Castleton, Monmouthshire. In his boyhood he was engaged in the manufacturing of tin plates. Subsequently Mr. Lewis became connected with the Press, and represented the "Merthyr Express," "Hereford Times" and "South Wales Daily News."

In 1888, Mr. Lewis was elected a Delegate to represent the district in which he lived, at the annual meeting of the Royal Liver Friendly Society, and his prominent business qualifications and grasp of the details of the various matters discussed by the Liver Parliament were of so conspicuous a character, that on two occasions he was elected a member of special committees to deal with important matters affecting the Society, and in 1891 he was elected to a seat on the Board of management. Mr. Lewis was Chairman of the Committee of Management when the Society celebrated its Jubilee in 1901. The following entry appears in the Historical Sketch of that year:—

“Mr. Lewis is a very fluent speaker, and when elected on the Board of Management was a member of the Bedwelty School Board, Monmouthshire. He is deservedly esteemed by all classes of the employees of the Society which number between three thousand and four thousand, and his generous disposition and geniality of character are no doubt the factors which have, to some extent, contributed to his popularity as a public man.”

Mr. Lewis also holds the distinguished position of being Vice-President of the Federation of Collecting Friendly Societies of Great Britain.

In the illustrated Jubilee Historic sketch of the Royal Liver Friendly Society appears a portrait of Mr. Lewis and this interesting reference.

A meeting was held on Thursday, the 19th of August (1900), in the Tower Grounds, New Brighton, Liverpool, when nearly 800 were present, representing the Committee of Management, the Delegates, the Agents, the Clerks, and the Members. A dinner was partaken of in one of the pavilions and the party was afterwards addressed by then chairman, who, after referring to the humble origin of the Society, its marvellous growth, and its growing prosperity, concluded in these words:—

“Whilst giving the greatest credit to the pioneers of the Society and to those who had been mainly instrumental in developing it, he would be failing in his duty if he refrained from giving credit to the present staff, who had done so much to bring about that state of things which happily existed at the present time. It afforded him pleasure to welcome the magnificent gathering assembled, and to express a hope that this celebration would prove a stimulus and an incentive to all to act with loyal co-operation to make the society yet more useful, and to maintain that high position which it had long occupied amongst kindred institutions.”

Subscription Renewals.

This issue marks the commencement of the 14th year of the publication of the Lewis Inter-Family paper. In accordance with our custom the paper will be sent to all subscribers until ordered discontinued. An early renewal will be a favor appreciated by the publisher. Why are there not more subscribers is a mystery to all interested. Is there any Lewis who cannot afford a dollar for being kept posted on all that is of interest concerning the name Lewis? Too many, alas, think words of commendation are the only golden coin needed to pay the printer's bills.

Lewis Day At World's Fair.

Sept. 23, 1904.

The greatest family reunion the world has ever known.

The leading editorial of the Nashville American of Sunday, May 24th, was "Lewis Day at St. Louis."

The latest Lewis Societies being organized are at New Orleans, in South Carolina and Tennessee. Is there one in your State?

The great Roster of Lewises being prepared by the Executive Committee (Hon. Edward S. Lewis, Chairman, 915 Washington ave., St. Louis, Mo.) is rapidly approaching completion. Is your name on it? Why not send your own address with the addresses of all Lewises and kin known to you? It is better that an address be sent twice than not to appear at all on this Roster of the Lewis Family.

It has been suggested that either Rhode Island or Missouri State Buildings would be suitable Headquarters for the Day. It would be especially appropriate for Virginia or even the World's Fair Commission to reproduce the old Meriwether Lewis Homestead near Charlottesville and loan the use of it for the Day.

Why should not the Lewis Society of St. Louis offer a Ten Days' Free Entertainment at The Fair for the best Program of Exercises for Lewis Day.

The first regularly conducted meeting of the L. L. L. will be held on the evening of Lewis Day. Let all be present.

GENEALOGICAL RECORDS.

Explanations, Abbreviations, Etc.

For convenience the records of the various Lewis families are divided into Books and each Book into Chapters. At the head of each Book appears the name of the earliest known ancestor of that family. The List of Books is a complete index to the Books as published to this time. New Books will be added from time to time as new branches of the Lewis family are found. As soon as Books are proved parts of others they will be merged into the Books to which they belong. Each name is numbered when first printed and whenever the name is repeated this number follows in brackets. The abbreviations commonly used in genealogical work are used, as b. for born; d. died; m. married; m. (1) first wife; dau. daughter; unm. not married v. p. see page, etc.

Hints For Contributors.

In writing matter for the printer use only one side of the sheet, note paper preferred. In giving dates, give year, month and day whenever known. Write all middle names in full. Give names and addresses of such people as you think may be able to complete the record but get it yourself if possible and spare the editor. Old newspaper files, tomb stones, family Bibles and records, official records of the town, school and church, burial certificates, county and probate records, old deeds and letters are some of the more important sources of information. Don't forget however the stores of information which the old people can give—Get them interested and then "pump them dry." Most important of all, don't get discouraged yourself. How can you interest others, if you yourself are not alive with enthusiasm?

Family Record Questions.

1. Name in full; initials are often a source of confusion.
2. When and where born?
3. When and where married and by whom?
4. To whom married? Always give name in full and in case of the wife give her maiden name.
5. Give date of birth of your "better half or halves."
6. Give cause, place and date of death.
7. Names of parents-in-law, being sure to give maiden name of your mother-in-law.
8. Place or places of residence.
9. What is your occupation?
10. When and where educated?
11. What public office have you held?
12. What service in army or navy?
13. What traditions in your family?
14. Give any interesting events in family history.
15. Names of your children with places and dates of birth.

16. If they are married answer questions 3 to 15 inclusive for them.

17. Dates of death for ch. dying unm.

18. Names of your brothers and sisters with dates of birth and as much more of their family history as you can give or obtain from them the complete record.

19. Names of your parents. Be sure to give your mother's maiden name with names of her parents.

20. Dates of birth, marriage and death.

21. Names of your father's parents.

22. Dates of birth, marriage and death.

23. Names of children with dates of birth.

24. Any further history of these uncles and aunts that you can obtain.

25. Anything you can learn of your earlier ancestry. Much of this will probably be fragmentary. It is one object of the LEWISIANA to make this complete for you but you must do your part.

BENJAMIN LEWIS, Stratford, Ct.

Chapter CXCIX.

From the Bridgeport Evening Farmer.

After a long life of activity and honorable service, Capt. Everitt Lewis Wheeler (2034 v p 131 Vol. XI) died at his Broad street home in Stratford, Ct., Apr. 28, 1903, in his 81st year. Few men were better known here, certainly not among seafarers. Captain Wheeler came from a family of mariners every one of whom attained distinction. For some time deceased had been in failing health and left his home but once or twice throughout the winter, then only for a brief stroll about the immediate vicinity. While his death was not unexpected it occasions no less a surprise, and expressions of regret are general. The only direct of kin outliving him is his sister, Miss Augusta Wheeler, who has conducted his home for a number of years.

JOHN LEWIS, Westerly, R. I.

Chapter CCCCVII.

By Henry H. Lewis, Carthage, N. Y.

Before their marriage Henry Lewis (3198 v p 181 Vol. XIII) and Philanda Hastings taught school in Wilna, Champion and several other towns in Jefferson co., N. Y. After their marriage they lived in the town of Wilna near the present home of the writer, which is upon a portion of the land owned by Henry Sr. (3194) who was the 3d son of Abraham (56 v p 153 Vol. XII). In the month of April 1826 Henry and his wife Philanda with three children together with his father and older brother Ephriam (3195) started for Lagrange, Ohio, where they had purchased land of land agents who had previously been to Wilna. After reaching Laporte, which was still ten miles from their final destination, Mrs. Lewis and her three children remained there while Mr. Lewis and his brother Ephriam continued the journey reaching their place on the 16th of May. They found wolves, wild hogs and Indians; the Indians were friendly. The next day after their arrival they commenced building a log cabin covering it with bark for the roof, hanging a blanket for the door and simply a hole cut through the side for a window. The third day Mr. Lewis went for Mrs. Lewis and the children. The mode of conveyance was an ox team and sled. Mr. and Mrs. Lewis continued to live in that section of the state till their deaths. They bore the hardships of pioneer life with the true Lewis characteristic of sturdiness and raised a family of six children whose records will now follow.

For the above information I am indebted to Mrs. Elvira Knapp who was the third child of Henry and Philanda Lewis. A few years ago Mrs. Knapp was still living in Wellington, Ohio, and it is with pleasure I remember our correspondence in regard to our early Lewis families.

William Lewis, Farmington, Ct.

Chapter CCCXXXI.

The Village of Lewiston Founded.

Thursday April 9th Mr. Horatio B. Lewis (1812 v p 151, Vol. XIII for portrait) sailed from New York City for the Island of Cuba aboard the Ward Line Steamer City of Washington, reaching Santiago six days later. From Santiago Mr. Lewis took the Cuban railroad for Holquin where within a distance of 15 miles Mr. Lewis and his associates have secured a tract of 80,000 acres of land. The land lies in what is known as the Canto Valley and is said to be as level as a barn floor without stone or pebble and covered with heavy forests consisting of fourteen or more kinds of merchantable timber including a large growth of Mahogany, Lignum Vita, Cedar and other choice timber through which for seven and one-half miles the Cuban railroad now runs. A new town christened by the Detroit members of the enterprise Lewiston has been started and its name given in honor of the future General Manager of this large tract of southern timbered lands. It is the intention of the company to erect a large saw mill to cut the product of the new possession, the soft timber being utilized at the mills while the more expensive woods will be exported to this and other countries. When the timber is removed the soil will be used for grazing purposes 2,000 or more cattle will be purchased and a portion of the land used as a stock ranch. The soil is especially adapted to oranges and other tropical fruits and the larger proportion of the entire tract will eventually be utilized for this purpose. Mr. Lewis during his stay on the Island visited Havana and enjoyed an interview with President Palma, took snap shots of Morro Castle and the wreck of the battle ship Maine. Mr. Lewis returned to the states on the City of Havana reaching Elk Rapids, Thursday May 7th an enthusiastic believer in the future of the southern Isle.

Chapter CCCXXXII.

By Theo. E. Lewis, Syracuse, N. Y.

Simeon D. Lewis (393) of Warsaw, N. Y., died suddenly at his home May 20, 1903, of heart trouble, aged 72 years. He was born in the town of Orangeville in this county Sept. 8, 1830. He was a graduate of the Genesee and Wyoming Seminary in Alexander, N. Y., after which he taught in the Institution two years and subsequently in the Warsaw Academy for one year. He was in the hardware business in this village for 19 years and from 1878 until his death was in the boot and shoe trade.

Mr. Lewis was treasurer of Wyoming county for 17 years, supervisor of the town of Warsaw three years, and held various local offices in the village of Warsaw. In 1853 he married Sarah L. Canfield of Alexander, who survives him, as also does one son, George A. Lewis, (605 v p 70, Vol. V) of Warsaw. He was one of a family of eleven children, of whom two sisters survive, Mrs. Julia L. Snow of Elyria, O., and Pamela Cleveland of Rockford, Ill.

Mr. Lewis was a man of irreproachable character, an influential member of the Congregational Church, prominent in all matters pertaining to the welfare of the community in which he lived and will be sadly missed.

(Mr. Lewis was the author of a little book, now out of print, called Book XVIII of the Genealogy of the Lewis Family. He has always been an enthusiastic supporter of Lewisiana and his cheering, encouraging letters will be much missed.—Ed.)

Early in the forties Amos took his family to Barrington, Cook co., Ill., where his second wife d Sept. 21, 1847. She is interred at Barrington and a stone marks her grave. In 1850 he m (3) Mrs. Fannie (Williams) Spaulding, b Yates, N. Y., Dec. 7, 1805, widow of Almon Spaulding. In letters written between 1855 and 1864 he calls her his "little wife" and she was evidently a very small person. She is said by the daughter Delia to have been a fine Christian woman. She d Magnolia, Rock co., Wis., in Nov. 1864, and is interred in Magnolia cemetery. Amos was then living on 160 acres granted him by the government per the following:

"We have the complete rolls of the militia from New York, who served in the war of 1812. The adjutant general of this state has nothing to compare with our records. They were a noble band of patriots who finished the Revolution of 1776. Our revered father, Amos Lewis, served in Captain Daniel Haskell's company, Colonel

Warren's regiment. We obtained for him in 1857, 160 acres of land, which he located in Wisconsin, and spent the evening of his earthly life at Magnolia, Rock county, where he entered the celestial life peacefully after an earthly discipline of ninety-two years—The Day Star, Corry, Pa., May 18, 1901.

Chapter CC

From the Salt Lake City Herald.

One of the greatest copper enterprises undertaken in recent years has just been launched by Senator A. B. Lewis (v p 170 Vol. XII for portrait.) The Royal Gold & Copper Company, with a capital of $10,000,000, has been organized under the laws of Colorado to acquire and develop over 4,000 acres of mining properties in Beaver, Iron and Washington counties, Utah. The properties have already produced over $1,000,000 in copper, gold, silver and lead. As soon as the immense concentrating plants and smelter, which will be commenced at once, are finished, it is expected that they will be sending out 1,000 tons of ore a day.

From Nat. Cyclo. of Am. Biog.

Upon the resignation of the house surgeon six months later, Ernest S. Lewis (418 v last issue) was elected his successor and held the position until the arrival of Gen. Banks, who changed the Administration. Desiring to enlist in the Confederate Army. Dr. Lewis ran the blockade with two others. He pulled a skiff through a mile of swamp to Lake Pontchartrain, which he crossed; he made his way to Tullahoma and there passing his examination as full surgeon was commissioned and assigned to the 3d Gov. Cavalry of Crew's Brigade, Martin's Division, Wheeler's Corps. He later became brigade surgeon of Crew's Brigade and during the last six months of the war was medical director of Gen. Wheeler's Cavalry Corps and placed on his staff. After the close of hostilities he returned to New Orleans and engaged in the practice of his profession. He was inspector for the Board of Health in the 3d district in 1866-67; chief of clinic to Prof. Hunt about the same time and was appointed in 1873 professor of materia medica and therapeutics. In 1876 he was transferred to the chair of obstetrics, gynecology and diseases of children, which he still occupies. He is vice-president of the Board of Directors of the Charity Hospital; a member of the American Medical Asso. and was chairman of the obstetrical section in 1879. He is also a member of the Southern Surgical and Gynecological Asso. and was its president in 1896; was a delegate at the international congress of obstetrics and gynecology, Geneva, 1896 and is a member of the parish and state medical societies. m 1866 Susan D. 1. Hints to Sportsmen; containing notes on shooting, the Habits of Game Birds and Wild Fowls of America, the Dog, the Gun, the Field, etc. Philadelphia. 1851, 12 mo.

2. The American Sportsman, etc., 1855, 8vo. This may be considered an improved enlarged edition of No. 1. A 3d edition was published 1857, 8vo. —a truly beautiful volume, with numerous illustrations; highly commended in Putnam's Monthly Magazine Vol 330.

Two American sportsmen have favored us with some comments on this work and from these we extract a few lines:—

"The descriptions of the birds are most graphic and the general information and practical suggestions are of the most useful character to every votary of the Dog and Gun."—L.

"A valuable compilation of well-digested ideas of writers, talkers, amateurs and the thoroughly initiated in sporting matters—exhibiting much care, study and patience on the part of the author."—C.

3. American edition of Youatt on the Dog; with additions; 1847, 8vo.

Dr. Lewis is the author of several articles on the origin of the Setter and Pointer, republished in Porter's ed. of Lt. Col. P. Hawkin's Instructions to Young Sportsmen and has contributed numerous scientific and sporting as well as humorous papers to the N. Y. Spirit of the Times.
