Two Good Suggestions.

By R. G. LEWIS, CHILLICOTHE, OHIO.

1. Would it not be possible to have a Lewis Corner in some large Library? This should contain all the books and pamphlets written or edited by Lewises. Every Lewis author would donate a copy of his or her works. Locate it in Conn., Mass., or New York, where so many Lewises live.

[The Editor would suggest the Dedham Historical Society in Mass., the N. Y. Historical Society in New York City or Yale University Library at New Haven, Ct., institutions which have already shown their interest in LEWISIANA and its work. The last has many advantages over the others. Its large collections already contain many of the works needed, while its long list of Lewis alumni besides the many others who have taken unto themselves a Lewis for a helpmate would seem to point to it as the place.]

2. Can we not have a Lewis song, one containing the sentiment of the name with a rousing chorus to incite us and our descendants to pure and noble lives? Surely there are Lewises of enough ability to write a family song and set it to inspiring music. Get after the real Welsh-blood Lewises for this.

[The Editor hopes to hear from Leo Rich Lewis (690 Book 24, v. p. 168, Vol. IV) or some of the Lewises who took part in the International Eisteddfod of the World's Fair in this matter. Perhaps some other Lewises unknown to LEWISIANA will take a hand in the contest. The memory of him who composes this song will survive as long as the name Lewis shall endure. Helen Kendrick Johnson in her introduction to Our Familiar Songs, wrote, "They are the songs we have all sung, or wished we could sing; the songs our mothers crooned over our cradles, and our fathers hummed at their daily toil; the songs our sisters sang when they were the prima donnas of our juvenile world; the songs of our sweethearts and our boon companions; the songs that have swayed popular opinion, inspired armies, sustained revolutions, honored the king, made presidents and marked historical epochs." Such a song the Lewises demand, not too long, four or five stanzas, set to some old familiar air such as we all know. Who will write it for LEWISIANA?]

REVOLUTIONARY SOLDIERS OF VIRGINIA.

By R. G. LEWIS, CHILLICOTHE, O.

In a "Roll of the officers in the Virginia Line, of the Revolutionary Army, Who have received Land Bounty, in the States of Ohio and Kentucky; to which is added a List of those Commissioned Officers and Privates, whose claims, if not assigned, are well worth attention" occur the following Lewis names. The pamphlet was printed for Latham and Leonard at Chillicothe, O., February 15th, 1822.

Colonels and Lieutenant Colonels, Charles Lewis, 6,000 acres.

Majors, William Lewis, 7,110 acres.

Captains, George Lewis, 4,000 acres; Addison Lewis, 4,000 acres.

Lieutenants, Ensigns and Cornets, Andrew Lewis, 2,666 acres; Thomas Lewis, 2,666 acres; E. Lewis, heir 2,666 acres.

EDWARD SIMMONS LEWIS, was born Aug. 22, 1848, at Richmond, Mo., son of Eugene Augustus and Parthenia A. (dau. of Walter L. Bransford) Lewis. His father was Judge of the Court of Appeals of St. Louis Mo., and Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of the State of Missouri, serving over thirteen years in the two offices. He was married April 4, 1876, to Pattie, daughter of Watson M. and Maria A. (Shores,)Cooke.

Mr. Lewis is much interested in Lewis genealogy and hopes his branch of the Lewis family will soon be traced. He is the great, great, great grandson of Samuel Lewis and Effie Davenport. This Samuel Lewis was born at Woodbridge, N. J., Jan'y 1, 1702, and may have been son of Thomas Lewis, of Woodbridge, N. J., who had charge of the "Stone Bridge" in 1702.

of the Hargadine-McKittrick Dry Goods Co., began in the wholesale dry goods business as salesman for Chase & Cabot in 1870, continuing with them until 1881, when he entered the employ of Crow, Hargadine & Co. Three years afterward he became a partner in this firm, now succeeded by the corporation of Hargadine-McKittrick Dry Goods Company, of which he is a Director and one of the principal stockholders.

It is generally understood that Mr. Lewis controls a larger trade, individually, than any other one man in St. Louis and it is probable that no man connected with the wholesale trade is better or more favorably known to the five thousand buyers who visit this market each season.

[From St. Louis Dry Goods Reporter. Issue of June 14, 1895.]

GENEALOGICAL RECORDS.

Explanations, Abbreviations, etc.

For convenience the records of the various Lewis families are divided into Books and each Book into chapters. At the head of each Book appears the name of the earliest known ancestor of that family. The List of Books is a complete index to the Books as published to this time. New Books will be added from time to time as new branches of the Lewis family are found. As soon as Books are proved parts of others they will be merged into the Books to which they belong. Each name is numbered when first printed and whenever the name is repeated this number follows in brackets. The abbreviations commonly used in genealogical work are used; as b. for born; d. died; m. married; m. (1) first wife; dau. daughter; unm. not married; v. p. see page; etc. Instead of repeating the name of a place in the same paragraph initials only are frequently given.

Hints for Contributors.

In writing matter for the printer use only one side of the sheet, note paper preferred. In giving dates, give year, month and day whenever known. Write all middle names in full. Answer the following questions as fully as possible and give names and addresses of such people as you think may be able to complete the record but get it yourself if possible and spare the editor. Old newspaper files, tomb stones, family Bibles and records, official records of the town, school and church, burial certificates, county and probate records, old deeds and letters are some of the more important sources of information. Don't forget however the stores of information which the old people can give—Get them interested and then "pump them dry." Most important of all don't get discouraged yourself. How can you interest others, if you yourself are not alive with enthusiasm?

CHAPTER LIII.

By H. J. LEWIS, JR., LOUISVILLE, KY.

Journal of Col. Charles Lewis continued. October 26.—This day Lieutenant Walter Stuart showed me the Fort. It is a quadrangular fort with four bastions, about four hundred feet in the square; has eleven four-pounders and two smaller mounted. It is situated on the north side of Potomac, in Maryland, on a hill very pleasant, more so, I think, than advantageous; has a very romantic prospect from the mountain, and is very healthy. I was this day ordered to return to Fredricksburg, but my horse being tired, I was excused.

October 27, 28, 29, and 30.—Nothing remarkable.

October 31.—An Irishman arrived at the fort with two scalps. It seems he was, the Sunday before, taken prisoner by a party of fifty-two Indians, and being left in custody of two while the party proceeded toward the inhabitants, he, with his guard arrived at the Shanol Camp, and encamped in a deserted house. About eleven o'clock he was ordered to make up the fire, but refusing so to do, was threatened the tomahawk, but accidentally casting his eye on an axe in the house, very convenient to him, he, with it, beat out the brains of the Indian next to him, and with his gun shot the other through the body. Having escaped them he made the best of his way to Fort Cumberland with their scalps, guns, horses, etc. I bought one of the guns for fifty shillings, Maryland currency, being a French piece, very handsome and equally good. This same day a party of volunteers, consisting of one hundred men, rank and file, and eight officers, were defeated. The Indians having disclosed their designs to McIrvine, their prisoner, it is not doubted the party will cut them off.

November 1, 2, 3.—Nothing remarkable.

November 4.—The volunteers returned without success; the Indians being supposed to have returned.

November 13.—Colonel Stevens arrived this day with about one hundred recruits with their proper officers: Captains Robert Spotswood and William Peachy; Lieutenants John Hall and King; two volunteers.

November 14, 15, 16, 17, 18, 19.—Nothing material.

November 20.—Ensign Bacon arrived at the fort from Patterson's creek, where he had been to erect a fort. Oh his way he heard the Indian halloo and saw many tracks of Indians in the woods.

CHAPTER XXXVI.

BY EUGENE C. MASSIE, RICHMOND, VA.

Though he had violated no law, human or divine, though he had acted strictly and equally in self-defence against a lawless power and oppression, yet the occurrence took place in a monarchical government, whose policy it is to preserve a difference in the ranks of society. One of the nobility had been slain by one of his tenants. The connections of the young Lord were rich and powerful; those of Lewis poor and humble. With such fearful odds it was deemed rash and unwise that Lewis with law and justice on his side should surrender himself up to the officers of justice and stand his trial. It was consequently determined that Lewis should proceed on that evening in female dress to the nearest seaport, and take shipping for Oporto in Portugal, where a brother of his wife had established himself in the trade of merchandise. He luckily met with a vessel just ready to sail from the Bay of Donnegal. He took passage in her, and after various adventures arrived in Oporto in the year 1729. Upon his arrival there he was advised by his brother-in-law, in order to evade the pursuit of his enemies, to proceed to Philadelphia, the capital of Pennsylvania in North America and there await the arrival of his family, whose removal from Ireland his brother-in-law undertook to effect. Lewis in pursuance of this advice proceeded to Philadelphia, and there awaited the arrival of his family. In about one year after he had been there, his family joined him; and hearing from them of the industrious efforts which the friends of the deceased Lord were making to discover the country to which he had fled, Lewis determined, in order to elude all further harassments, to penetrate deeply into the American forest. He accordingly after the arrival of his family removed from Philadelphia to Lancaster, Pennsylvania, where he spent the winter of 1731-2. In the summer of 1732 he removed to the place near Staunton in Augusta county, Virginia, now owned by David W. Pate-son, where he settled and raised his family, conquered the country from the Indians, and acquired a large fortune. At the time he settled at the above place, Augusta Co. was not formed; the country was in the possession of the Indians: there were scarcely any white inhabitants; and Staunton was not known.

AUGUSTUS J. LEWIS, Charlestown, R. I.

CHAPTER IX.

BY JOHN G. LEWIS, NEW HAVEN, CONN.

E. R. Potter in his History of Early Narragansett, gives the same descent as Updike (v last month) stating that Sarah, the 4th ch. of Gov. Wm. Brenton m. Jos. Elliott, of Guilford, Ct., and their 4th ch. Bathsheba, m. Augustus Lucas, of Fairfield, and their dau. Mary, m. James A. Hillhouse, of New Haven, Ct. So much for the mother.

Now in regard to the father of Augustus Johnson Lewis. Updike states that Matthew Robinson m. Oct. 4, 1741, Barsheba Johnson, mother of Augustus Johnson, afterwards Attorney General of the Colony (R. I.) She was dau. of a Mr. Lucas, a French Huguenot, who fled to this country on the revocation of the Edict of Nantes.

Miss Hillhouse says: "His (Augustus Lucas') dau. Barsheba, was afterwards Madam Johnson, of Newport, distinguished for her literary attainments, and died wife of Matthew Robinson, Esq.

Augustus Johnson and Mary Lucas were own cousins, therefore, as stated on p 60, Vol. IV.

[Why was Lewis chosen for their child's name? Can it be shown that any member of the Johnson or Lucas families purchased for the child this land, some of which is still owned (by inheritance it is presumed) by some of his descendants? ED.]

Clippings.

History peeps out from every nook and corner at Glen Lily, about nine miles from Mumfordsville, Ky. The truth is, Gen. and Mrs. Simon Bolivar Buckner seldom let any piece of furniture or ornament creep into the house unless it can tell a tale. Mrs. Buckner is a direct descendant of Geo. Washington's sister Bettie, and she has many valuable reminders of the great leader. She occasionally wears at her throat three large irregular white shell buttons, which the first President wore on his first inaugural coat.

An onyx snuff box, gold lined and ornamented, which was presented by General Washington to his niece, Miss Betty Lewis who became the wife of Chas. Carter, of Frederick, Va., has come into the possession of the Connecticut Historical society of Hartford, Ct. The box, which is regarded as a valuable relic, was given by Mrs. Carter to a personal friend, Mrs. Daniel Brown. She at her death transmitted it to her son, Henry I. Brown of Lynchburg.

POINT PLEASANT, W. Va., May 21.—The people are making an effort to raise money to erect a monument to the memory of General Lewis, who was killed in the battle between the Indians and the whites in 1774. His body was taken up 25 years ago and placed in an iron casket. There has been $7000 raised, and Congress will be asked to make an appropriation toward it. The monument will cost about $100,000.

The grave of the Indian warrior Cornstalk is here in the Courthouse yard, unmarked, and but few of the oldest citizens know the exact spot.

VANCEBURG, Ky., May 29.—(Special).—The big land suit for 20,606 acres between Harlan's heirs and Howard and Lewis, which has been pending for thirty-three years, was decided to-day by Judge Harbeson in favor of Harlan's heirs.

NEW HAVEN, Conn., June 11.—The annual convention of the Protestant Episcopal church in the diocese of Connecticut, met in St. Paul's church this morning. The opening service was at 9:30, when the sermon was preached by the Rev. W. H. Lewis, rector of St. John's church, Bridgeport. [Rev. W. H. Lewis is a member of Book XXIV (v p 87, Vol. V) and has promised to complete the records of his line in the near future. Ed.]

A valuable paper has been issued by the North Carolina State Board of Health, presenting facts to show that malarial diseases are due to impure drinking-water rather than to bad air. The paper was compiled by Dr. R. H. Lewis, the Secretary of the board, who has made a thorough study of the subject with a view to finding out what conditions of living and habit will render the people of his state most free from malarial infection. Dr. Lewis shows that malaria is most common among persons who use "surface water," which includes water from "shallow wells" and "branch or ditch water." On the other hand, exemption from it has been obtained by many large and small communities that drink only water from deep driven wells, artesian wells, and cisterns.

The Lewis, with its tail-piece, the Harris, is quite a sizable island to be appended to such a country as Scotland. It is a number of miles long, and another number of miles wide, and it has a number of thousand inhabitants—I should say as many as three-quarters of an inhabitant to the square mile—and the conditions of agriculture and the fisheries are extremely interesting and quarrelsome.

The most striking feature among general gatherings for the latter half of the present year will be the Cotton States International Exposition at Atlanta, September 18 to December 31. The President and Director-General is Mr. C. A. Collyer; the Secretary, Mr. J. R. Lewis.
